1. The Frankfurt/Oder Replacement Depot was used only for Soviet military coming to the Soviet Zone of Germany. [redacted] all officers, upon assignment to GOFG, stopped for processing at the Frankfurt/Oder Depot. EM assigned to GOFG were likewise shipped to Frankfurt/Oder and picked up there by officers of the units to which they were assigned.
2. Officers returning from GOFG to the USSR were not processed in Frankfurt/Oder. They were assembled in special hotels near the headquarters of their army, given their reassignment orders to a certain USSR military district, (or direct to a unit) and returned directly to the USSR.
3. If reassigned to a USSR military district, officers reported to the personnel department of that district; if assigned to a unit, they would report directly to that unit. EM demobilized from GOFG were returned under officer escort directly to their military districts. [redacted]
